HOLD-UP OF SHIP MAY CAUSE A ROW

Norwegian Steamer Had No Connection With Alleged Filibustering Expedition.

NEW ORLEANS, La., September 4.—As a sequel to the rumor of an alleged filibustering expedition, with designs against the governments of several Central American republics, which originated in New Orleans two weeks ago, the steamer Ellis, a Norwegian vessel, under charter of the United Fruit Company, was held up late yesterday off the Mississippi River passes and searched by officers of the United States revenue cutter Davey. No contraband goods were found and the steamer was permitted to continue to Port Limon.

No official report has yet been received by the Federal authorities in New Orleans. Following the receipt of news of the search Colonel Crawford H. Ellis, manager of the fruit company, placed the matter in the hands of the company's counsel. It was reported here to-day that Captain Hansen, commanding the Ellis, would make a special report to the Norwegian consul at New Orleans upon his return to this port and that the holding up of the steamer might become an international affair.

About two weeks ago, a report became current here to the effect that the Ellis had been chartered for a filibustering expedition. The steamer sailed on her regular run the same day. The only grounds for the rumor, apparently, was that the Ellis carried a small shipment of dynamite to be used for blasting purposes by a Central American railroad. The report was denied and was forgotten until it reached Central America, where it created considerable excitement in some places.

OFFER WINDOWS FOR BLANDFORD

Historic Old Church of Petersburg Being Made a Memorial Abbey.

SOUTHLAND TO HER SONS

Response of States Is Supplemented by Proposal from the North.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., September 4.

The Ladies' Memorial Association, of which Mrs. L. L. Marks is president, has under consideration a proposition from Tiffany, of New York, to furnish three windows of artists' beauty to be placed in the historic old Blandford Church—one over the transept at the west entrance, and two in the north wing, over the gallery. The transept at the west entrance, while in possession of the association, has not yet been placed in position. While definite action in regard to the proposition has not been taken, it will, in all probability, be accepted.

Beautiful Memorial Chapel.
Blandford Church is being rapidly converted into a memorial chapel of rare beauty by the Ladies' Memorial Association, which has it in charge. For years the association has labored incessantly and expended its means in adorning and beautifying the large section of the cemetery in which rest the remains of many thousands of Confederates.

The old church has been fitted up and practically restored to its original condition, with its pulpit, its pews, its galleries, etc. The eleven large window spaces were set aside by the ladies' association for memorial windows to be erected by the States of the Confederacy in commemoration of their sons who fell in battle, for every Southern State is represented in the dead in Blandford. Appeals were sent out by the association to the Confederate organizations in the Southern States to raise the money to erect these windows.

Eight States have thus far responded. Virginia, North Carolina, Louisiana, and Missouri have erected their windows. South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee have placed their orders, and their windows will soon be ready to be placed in position. Georgia, Texas and Florida have yet taken no definite action. It is designed to have the four windows now being made placed in the church at the same time, with the transept and three smaller windows to be ordered by the association.

These large windows cost $400 each. They are of the same general design, each with the full-size figure of one of the Apostles, but each bearing the seal and coat of arms of the State furnishing it, with a separate inscription. Maryland has a small window in the north wing, armed with a victor's wreath and the seal of the State.

Junior Memorial Association.
The Ladies' Memorial Association has granted the privilege to one of its members to organize a Junior Association among the children at the city. This member attended the late Confederate reunion in Memphis, where she met Mrs. Virginia Frazier Boyle, the president of the Memphis association, where a large Junior Association has been organized. The object of the Junior organization is to make it not only a feeder to the older association, but to encourage the children to a closer study of Southern history.

Northern's Gracious Act.
Among the visitors to Old Blandford in May last was Miss Emily Johnson and her father, of Pittston, Pa. Miss Johnson was so pleased with the beauty of the cemetery and the work of the Ladies' Association there that she asked the privilege of donating to the association a large number of rose bushes of improved varieties, to be planted about the soldiers' squares for adornment. The offer was gratefully accepted and the plants will be sent here in October.

Family Away When House Burned.
A two-story frame building on the corner of Chappell and Rome Streets, occupied by I. Eisenberg, was partially destroyed by fire this afternoon. The family was away at the time at tending church, and it is not known how the fire originated.

Patrol System for Petersburg.
Among the important matters that will come up for consideration by the Common Council on Tuesday will be that of the establishment of a much needed police patrol system in Petersburg, which, it is estimated, will cost some $8,000 or $10,000, and which the Police Commissioners have asked for. Mr. Martin, W. A. Bond and W. H. Cooper, accompanied by Chief of Police Ragland, visited Richmond yesterday, and were courteously shown the operations of the system in that city. The matter will doubtless have the early favorable action of the Council.

W. C. T. U. Organizer to Speak.
Mrs. Christine J. Twilling, of England, national organizer of the W. C. T. U., who has spoken all through this country and Europe in behalf of the union, will deliver an address in High Street Church Tuesday night.

Palls Some Thirty Feet.
S. G. Hogwood, a well-known citizen, whose home is in South Street, while at work at Savage's Planing Mill yesterday, fell a distance of nearly thirty feet and was severely injured in the back.

Arranging for a Tournament.
The Riverside Club is arranging for a riding tournament, in which only members will take part, who will take place October 2. The privilege of crowning the Queen of Love and Beauty and her maids of honor will be the prizes sought for.

There will be no organized observance.

PILES

"I have suffered with piles for thirty-six years. One year ago last April I began taking Cascarets for constipation. In the course of a week I noticed the piles began to disappear and at the end of six weeks they did not trouble me at all. Cascarets have done wonders for me. I am entirely cured and feel like a new man." George Kryder, Napoleon, O.

LONG VAINLY FOR CHOPPY SEA.

Practice Conditions Unsatisfactory to Atlantic Fleet Gunners.
NORFOLK, Va., September 4.—Weather conditions again to-day failed to favor the Atlantic battleship and cruiser fleet's "batle practice" work on the Southern tip grounds off Cape Henry with the torpedo-boats Nicholson and O'Brien still in use as actual target ships. With a wind of eight miles an hour from the south there was a light ocean swell, but the desired choppy sea conditions for the gunnery aim upon the target boats were being towed about by tugs was lacking completely, and the day's work was not at all satisfactory. The ships of the squadron fleet are under orders to engage in no Sunday target work.

STRIKE IN SWEDEN

Acting Consul in New York Issues Statement as to Losses.

NEW YORK, September 4.—Concerning the great strike in Sweden, the acting consul for Sweden in New York, C. G. G. Anderberg, issued a statement to-day responsive to inquiries which have been made as to the influence of the strike on the economic activities of Sweden.

"The estimates of losses incurred by the strike as given by the press, foreign and domestic, are necessarily only approximate. Strikers, of course, lose their wages during the strike and this has been reckoned to be about $250,000 per day at the beginning of the strike. On the other hand, this sum represents so much reduction in favor of the employers. Still it must be conceded that the prolonged suspension of factory work entails in some industries considerable loss, which becomes greater the longer the strike lasts.

"Not inconsiderable savings have been made by the prohibition of the sale of beer and spirits during the strike. It is to be believed that the loss from suspended manufacturing activities will in a measure be neutralized by the enforced economy and lessened local consumption. It is also confidently expected that the economic activities generally throughout Sweden and their relation to foreign trade will, it is believed, be materially affected by the strike or its result."
